

Kenya School of Monetary Studies

Openings for Research Assistants

Overview

Kenya School of Monetary Studies (KSMS / The School) trains students in banking and financial services. A number of graduate programs in banking, finance and related areas are being conducted in collaboration with public universities.

The School's Research Centre provides input into, and complements the learning process. A number of openings for the position of Research Assistants are currently available. Successful applicants will assist in research work for a period of six (6) months.

Minimum Requirements

Qualification: MA Economics desirable; MSC Agricultural Economics

Experience : Up to 3 years post-Masters

Application Procedure

Persons interested in being considered for the position of Research Assistant should provide an application letter and a current copy of their CV, by email, to the address info@ksms.or.ke. The email subject should clearly state "Application for Position of Research Assistant". All applications should be addressed to

The Executive Director,
Kenya School of Monetary Studies
PO Box 65041- 00618 NAIROBI

The last date of receiving applications is 18th April 2011.